

☉ Dancing with Mary Magdalene ☉

FRIDAY & SATURDAY, JULY 23-24, 2010

DURHAM FRIENDS MEETING HOUSE
404 ALEXANDER AVENUE, DURHAM, NC

An experiential workshop
combining ceremony, meditation, walks,
and the Mary Magdalene cycle of dances originated by Amína Linda McMakin, in the tradition of the Dances of Universal Peace

Holy Mary Magdalene's Day is celebrated on July 22, beginning a summer cycle of feminine holidays going into early September. In the Gnostic Christian tradition, Mary is believed to be the consort of Yeshua (Jesus), and ancient scriptures say that she was the one to whom he revealed the fullness of his teaching. She represents the archetypal Feminine Principle manifested in humanity; and an attunement to Mary's vibration may bring a greater balance of co-equality between men and women.

In this workshop we offer an opportunity for holy women to come together to form a matrix of supernal consciousness through which a greater light-transmission might occur.

Workshop activities will include:

- ☉ Sacred dances and walks inspired by Mary Magdalene
- ☉ Sophia-Maria: The Wisdom Teachings of Mary Magdalene
- ☉ Narrative and teachings of Mary's path of devotion
- ☉ Creating our own garland crowns for Crowning Ceremony
- ☉ Free time for nature & labyrinth walks
